

February 2015

Newsletter

Editor: Juilee Bhansali

Prof Praveen Karla , Dean Academic Affairs, and his team from PEC University of Technology, Chandigarh visited the BETiC lab on 2nd Feb 2015. They took the lab tour and were interested in replicating a similar center in their institute.

Dr. Dolas from Ragiv Gandhi Science and Technology commission (RGSTC) visited the BETiC lab on 2nd Feb 2015. He reviewed the progress of all BETiC projects, met with our researchers and BETiC team and discussed more innovative ideas for betterment of the center.

Vikas Karade, PhD Scholar presented his PhD pre-synopsis on 3rd Feb 2015, in front of IITB Faculty and other PhD students. The presentation was conducted in the BETiC lab.

Dr. Sunder of the BISS foundation, Bangalore visited the BETiC lab on 4th Feb 2015. He was given the lab tour by Rupesh Ghyar, Chief Scientist. They were interested in the BETiC initiatives and the E-foundry projects.

The BETiC team attended the design presentation of Baisampayans Saha, Product design student, IDC on 4th Feb 2015. He presented innovative design ideas for a universal laparoscopic instrument handle, designed to increase ease-of-use and maneuverability for the surgeon during surgical procedures.

Mr. S.M. Saraf, CMD of Technocraft Industries, and alumnus of IITB visited the BETiC lab on 5th Feb 2015. He interacted with the BETiC team and was very happy to learn about the BETiC project.

February 2015

Newsletter

Editor: Juilee Bhansali

Vijayalakshmi Krishnaswamy, BETiC Research Associate attended the Research Indo-Australian BITERM Conference, Anna Univ, Chennai on 6th Feb 2015. The conference was on latest proceedings from biomaterials, drug delivery systems, tissue engg and regenerative medicine.

Dr. Richard Black, Department of Biomedical Engineering, University of Strathclyde visited the BETiC lab on 9th Feb 2015 and spent an entire day learning about the BETiC project and interacting with the team. He also discussed possible future collaborations between BETiC and University of Strathclyde.

Dr. M.L. Saraf, famous orthopedic surgeon, Bombay Hospital visited the BETiC lab on 11th Feb 2015. He learned about the BETiC project and discussed possible collaborations with the entire team.

Sritam Rout, Research Associate visited Sridevi Tools, precision manufacturer on 11th Feb 2015 to review and ergonomically design his device prototype. He interacted with the engineers and took feedback on his device.

BETiC team attended and participated in the Alumi meet, batch of '65 held on 14th Feb 2015. The team interacted and networked with the IIT alumni and spoke about the BETiC project, while inviting them for a tour of the lab.

Prof Ravi, along with Amit Maurya, Research Associate, visited the COEP and Symbiosis campus in Pune on 16th and 17th of Feb, 2015. Prof Ravi spoke about the future of medical device innovations in the country. They also met and networked with the faculty and students, while discussing ideas for future collaborations.

February 2015

Newsletter

Editor: Juilee Bhansali

Dr Vaibhav Bagaria, Consultant Orthopedic surgeon, visited the BETiC lab on 20th Feb. He was interested in the BETiC project and discussed at length possible contributions and future collaborations with the project and BETiC team.

BETiC team attended a lecture on Affordable Point of Care Diagnostics/Drug Delivery by Prof. Rohit Srivastava on 27th Feb 2015. Prof Srivasta spoke about the process and value of 'cost innovation' in the diagnostic and drug delivery industry in the country.